

MULTIPLE CHOICE

Directions: CIRCLE the best possible answer to each question.

1. What is a bull market?

- a. A period of generally rising prices
- b. A general decline in the stock market over a period of time
- c. A long-term trend affecting a single stock or commodity

2. What is a bear market?

- a. A long-term trend affecting a single stock or commodity
- b. A general decline in the stock market over a period of time
- c. A period of generally rising prices

3. A bullish investor...

- a. Only invests in big-name companies
- b. Sells lots of stock and tends to be pessimistic about the future
- c. Buys up lots of stock and is optimistic about the future

4. A bearish investor...

- a. Buys up lots of stock and is optimistic about the future
- b. Sells lots of stock and tends to be pessimistic about the future
- c. Only invests in big-name companies